You will visit amazing places like the Museo Larco with a unique collection of pre-Columbian art, the archeological site Huaca Pucllana, and the Museo de la Nación, tracing the history of Peru's ancient civilizations.

FASCINATING CUSCO

A beautiful city known for its archaeological remains and Spanish colonial architecture, like the Plaza de Armas, the central square in the old city, with arcades, carved wooden balconies and Incan wall ruins.

THRILLING MACHU PICCHU

AN INCAN CITADEL SET HIGH IN THE ANDES MOUNTAINS,

A 15th century citadel that stands at 2,430 meters above sea-level, in the middle of a tropical mountain forest with captivating buildings of sophisticated dry-stone walls made of blended massive blocks without the use of mortar. A religious, ceremonial, astronomical and agricultural centre filled with mysteries that still remain unresolved,

THE SACRED VALLEY

THE HEART OF THE INCA EMPIRE

A region of fertile farmland and Spanish colonial villages in the Andean highlands, which was the heart of the Inca Empire, along with the nearby town of Cusco and the ancient city of Machu Picchu.

You will explore the Salineras de Maras, salt mines whose exploitation is as old as the Tahuantinsuyo empire, Pisac, with its lively handicrafts market, Moray, an agricultural and archaeological site, Saqsaywaman, a citadel built in the 15th century, and the Cochahuasi Animal Sanctuary, where you will meet the imposing Andean Condor.

Along the way, you will also meet amazing locals and listen to their perplexing stories, and of course, be astonished by the fascinating Peruvian cuisine. All these and much more...
